

HVAC Diagnostic Service Technician [Sample Ad]

Would you consider yourself a “people person?” Do you like problem-solving and having all the answers? Most of all, do you love working to make others happy?

If your answer to those questions is a clear “YES,” then we might be able to help each other out! A local company, your town’s most trusted name in air conditioning, heating, and plumbing, is currently seeking a talented and friendly HVAC Diagnostic Service Technician who loves working for others and for themselves. As a technician for us, you will provide the friendliest service around, as well as living up to the beliefs that our founder and CEO built our company on. We want professional technicians to join our team, our family, and we know that you’re just that.

If you have EPA certification, a can-do attitude, and a few other bells and whistles, we definitely want to get to know you. We are looking for experienced, friendly folks to be our faces in the field; after all, we have made our good name on treating our customers like family.

If you’re tired of jobs that treat you as just another technician, we want to help you come start a career with us. If all of this interests you, and we truly hope it does, send us your resume, complete with experiences and references, as well as your contact information so we know how to get in touch with you and get you started on the path to a more fulfilling career, serving the community we all love. We truly look forward to hearing from you, and having you join our family!
